RECIPE NO 23 – VERONICA & FENNEL

ESTONIAN HANDICRAFT

Herbs are handpicked and preparation of herbs to balancing the recipe - it is all handcraft. Each bottle is elaborated by hand.

RECIPE NO 23 AND UNIQUE BOUQUET OF NORDIC PLANTS

The recipe no 23 is the result of thorough and timeconsuming work. The backbone of the recipe are grain and handpicked veronica from the heart of pure Estonian nature, which together with juniper berries and fennel are adding a flowery softness and crisp notes to gin.

TRADITIONAL POT STILL METHOD AND LONDON DRY GIN

The pot still method of distilling herbs has been used by Crafter's ginmasters and their predecessors since the beginning of the last century. Extensive experience guarantees a top quality London Dry Gin.
